LET'S WORK TOWARDS PEACEFUL ELECTIONS

On Monday, 7th December, 2020, Ghanaians will vote to elect Members of Parliament and the President for a four-year term.

This will be the eighth general election since the reintroduction of constitutional rule in 1992. Ghana has demonstrated maturity in handling elections and has become a beacon of hope and a great inspiration for Africa.

We urge all Ghanaians to work towards peaceful elections. We entreat politicians and political parties to observe all electoral principles and rules for elections as clearly specified by the Electoral Commission.

We are appealing to the flag bearers of all political parties, especially the two major parties, NPP and NDC, to respect the principles and rules guiding democracy and elections and to accept the results that will be declared by the Electoral Commission.

We urge all working people of Ghana to vote wisely and peacefully.

We are confident that Ghana will remain the beacon of hope for democracy in Africa.

May God help us!

DR YAW BAAH
SECRETARY GENERAL
